

How to File a Motion in a Foreclosure Case Before the Office of Foreclosure (For Plaintiff's Use Only)

(Superior Court of New Jersey - Chancery Division - General Equity) Who Should Use This Packet?

You should use this packet if you want to submit a motion directly to the Office of Foreclosure under *Rule*1:34-6. Please note that the Office of Foreclosure will only decide motions in uncontested matters. Once a matter is deemed to be contested, the case is transferred to the county where it is filed and any contested motion will be decided by the Judge in that county.

The following is a list of motions that the Office of Foreclosure will hear:

- Correcting a clerical error in orders or judgments;
- Correcting the defendant's name;
- Correcting venue;
- Substituting the plaintiff if, during the course of the foreclosure action, the original plaintiff reorganizes, merges with another entity, is acquired by another entity, or assigns the mortgage to another entity;
- Entering default;
- Extending time to answer;
- Filing an amended complaint, provided no new cause of action or claim for relief is set forth in the amended complaint;
- Vacating a default entered by the clerk;
- Vacating judgment and execution, reinstating bond or note and mortgage and, with the consent of answering defendants, dismissing the proceedings;
- Authorizing the sheriff to collect additional lawful sums;
- Dismissing the tax foreclosure action as to any parcel redeemed;
- Vacating an in rem foreclosure judgment upon application of the municipality owner;
- Correcting minor technical irregularities in the mortgage, note or legal description, if a substantial right of a party is not prejudiced;
- Substituting heirs and personal representatives for deceased defendants; and
- Disbursing surplus foreclosure money.

All Motions must have an original, ink signature. Any motions submitted with copies of signatures will be returned.

With limited exceptions, any paper filed with the court can be looked at by the public. You may only file a motion on behalf of yourself. You may not file a motion for anyone else. A Power of Attorney does not allow you to file on behalf of anyone else. Motions filed on behalf of anyone else will be returned.

Note: These materials have been prepared by the New Jersey Administrative Office of the Courts for use by self-represented litigants. The instructions and forms will be periodically updated as necessary to reflect current New Jersey statutes and court rules. The most recent version of the forms will be available on the Judiciary's Internet site njcourts.gov. However, you are ultimately responsible for the content of your court papers.

Completed forms are to be submitted to:
Superior Court Clerk's Office
Office of Foreclosure
P.O. Box 971
Trenton, New Jersey 08625

Things to Think About Before You Represent Yourself in Court

Try to Get a Lawyer

CAUTION: Some Foreclosure cases are very complex and you should consider getting a lawyer. The court system can be confusing and it is a good idea to get a lawyer if you can. The law, the proofs necessary to present your case, and the procedural rules governing cases in the Chancery Division, General Equity Part are complex. Most likely your opponent will be represented by a lawyer. It is recommended that you make every effort to obtain the assistance of a lawyer. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you may contact the legal services program in your county to see if you qualify for free legal services. Their telephone number can be found in your local yellow pages under “Legal Aid” or “Legal Services.”

If you do not qualify for free legal services and need help in locating an attorney, you can contact the bar association in your county. That number can also be found in your local yellow pages. Most county bar associations have a Lawyer Referral Service. The County Bar Lawyer Referral Service can supply you with the names of attorneys in your area willing to handle your particular type of case and will sometimes consult with you at a reduced fee. There are also a variety of organizations of minority lawyers throughout New Jersey, as well as organizations of lawyers who handle specialized types of cases. Ask your county court staff for a list of lawyer referral services that include these organizations.

If you decide to proceed without an attorney, these materials explain the procedures that must be followed to have your papers properly filed and considered by the court. Failure to follow procedures can result in a delay with processing your documents.

These materials do not provide information on the law governing your claims or defenses; information on how to conduct pretrial discovery; information on alternative dispute resolution procedures, such as mediation, that may be available or required in your case; information on the kinds of evidence you need to prove your claims or defenses at trial; or information on other procedural and evidentiary rules governing foreclosure actions.

What You Should Expect If You Represent Yourself

While you have the right to represent yourself in court, you should not expect special treatment, help, or attention from the court. The following is a list of some things the court staff can and cannot do for you. Please read it carefully before asking the court staff for help.

- We can explain and answer questions about how the court works.
- We can tell you what the requirements are to have your case considered by the court.
- We can give you some information from your case file.
- We can provide you with samples of court forms that are available.
- We can provide you with guidance on how to fill out forms.
- We can usually answer questions about court deadlines.
- We cannot give you legal advice. Only your lawyer can give you legal advice.
- We cannot tell you whether or not you should bring your case to court.
- We cannot give you an opinion about what will happen if you bring your case to court.
- We cannot recommend a lawyer, but we can provide you with the telephone number of a local lawyer referral service.
- We cannot talk to the judge for you about what will happen in your case.
- We cannot let you talk to the judge outside of court.
- We cannot change an order issued by a judge.

Keep Copies of All Papers

Make and keep copies of all completed forms and documents related to your case.

Definitions of Words Used in This Packet

Adversary – Your adversary in a lawsuit is the person or persons whose position is opposite to you. In a case in which there is only a plaintiff and a defendant and you are the plaintiff, your adversary is the defendant. Likewise, if you are the defendant, your adversary is the plaintiff. In this packet, service on your adversary means service on the attorney(s) representing your adversary or adversaries and/or on any party(ies) not represented by counsel.

Brief – A brief is a written argument submitted to the court in which you present the facts and the history of your case and the legal argument supporting the request you have made to the court in your motion.

Caption - A caption is the name of the case; it lists the name of both the plaintiff(s) and the defendant(s). For example: ABC Mortgage Company, Plaintiff v. Mary Smith, Defendant.

Certification - A certification is statement that certain facts are true to the best of the knowledge of the person making the statement. It is like an affidavit, but is not sworn before a notary or other authorized person.

Contesting Answer - A contesting answer is one that challenges the right of the lender to foreclose on the defendant's property. A contesting answer will be sent to a judge for a determination on the lender's right to foreclose.

Defendant - The defendant is the person being sued.

Discovery Motion - A discovery motion asks the court for a ruling on some phase of the discovery process such as a motion for more specific answers to interrogatories, a motion to compel depositions. Before filing a discovery motion, the moving party must try to resolve the matter with the other party(ies) in the case.

Docket Number - A docket number is the number the court assigns to a case so that it may be identified and located easily. You must include the docket number on all your communications regarding your case. Note: Documents without a docket number cannot be filed.

File - To file means to give the court the appropriate documents, forms and fees.

Motion – A motion is an application to the court for a specific order or ruling to be made in favor of the person making the motion (the movant).

Motion Day – Courts hear motions on specified days (usually Fridays) on the court calendar called motion days. You should obtain the motion schedule on line from the judiciary website at: njcourts.gov. It is the litigant's responsibility to contact the courthouse in the county where the case is filed to inquire about the motion day and to confirm if a case is scheduled for a hearing.

Movant or moving party – The movant or moving party is the person who is bringing the motion.

Non-contesting Answer - A non-contesting answer is one that does not challenge with specificity the lender's right to foreclose on the defendant's property. A case with a non-contesting answer will not be sent to a judge for resolution, but will be handled by the Office of Foreclosure in Trenton.

Notice of Motion – A Notice of Motion is the form used to inform the court and all opposing parties that the moving party is seeking a specific ruling or order from the court. A Notice of Motion must identify the courthouse where the motion will be heard (the courthouse in the county where the case is filed).

Definitions of Words Used in This Packet (continued)

Oral Argument – Oral argument refers to the appearance in court by the parties to present their positions to the judge in person. Either side may request oral argument, but the decision on whether there will be oral argument is up to the judge. If oral argument is not requested by either of the parties or the judge, the motion will be decided “on the papers.”

Plaintiff - The plaintiff is the person who files a complaint in a lawsuit.

Pro se - Pro se is a Latin term that means “on one’s own behalf.” A plaintiff or defendant in a law suit who does not have an attorney is said to be appearing pro se.

Proof of Mailing - Proof of mailing is the form in which you provide the dates and method you used to give the other parties copies of the papers that you filed in court.

Proposed Form of Order – A proposed order is a form that the judge can use to either grant or deny the relief sought in the motion. Every motion must be accompanied by a proposed form of order.

Redaction - the censoring or obscuring of part of a text for legal or security purposes is called redaction.

Note: Any documents received by the Clerk’s office will be processed and placed in the case jacket which, with limited exceptions, is available for public view.

Relief - Relief is the assistance or remedy sought by a complainant from a judge.

Return date – The return date is the date on which the court will consider the motion. If you request oral argument you must appear before the judge. If no oral argument is requested, the matter will be decided “on the papers.” That is, the judge will decide the motion on what has been submitted in the moving papers and in the opposition papers, without having anyone appear in court.

Service - Service refers to the delivery of the complaint or any other paper in a suit to the other parties in the case. Formal legal service requires that the service be made by an authorized person or by mail or, in limited situations, by publication in a newspaper.

Summary judgment - A motion for summary judgment asks the court to resolve the case in the moving party’s favor without a trial because there is no dispute over the facts of the case and the law supports the moving party’s position.

Venue - the venue is the particular county in which a court with jurisdiction may hear and determine a case.

The numbered steps listed below tell you what forms you will need to fill out and what to do with them. Each form should be typed or printed clearly on 8 ½” x 11” white paper only. Forms may not be filed on a different size or color paper.

Steps for Filing a Motion

STEP 1: Complete the Notice of Motion (Form A).

In the Notice of Motion, you inform the court and all parties that you have asked for a specific ruling or order and you specify the type of ruling you want. In the Notice of Motion you must identify that the motion is being heard by the Office of Foreclosure.

All foreclosure documents must be filed at:

The Administrative Office of the Courts
Superior Court Clerk’s Office
PO Box 971
Trenton, NJ 08625.

Foreclosure documents taken to the county for filing will not be accepted for filing.

Make sure that you have redacted (blacked out) any personal identifiers such as

- Social Security numbers,
- driver’s license numbers,
- vehicle plate numbers,
- insurance policy numbers,
- active financial account numbers, or
- active credit card numbers,

from any paper filed, unless any such personal identifier is required to be included by statute, rule, administrative directive or court order. If any active financial account is the subject of your case and cannot otherwise be identified, you may use the last four digits of the account to identify it.

Do not redact (black out) this information in the original papers that you are keeping (such as a bank statement) since you may have to show them to the court at some point.

STEP 2: Complete the Certification in Support of Motion and the Certification of Service (Form B).

The Certification in Support of Motion tells the court the reasons why you want the ruling you have requested and the facts supporting why the court should grant your request. You must also complete the Certification of Service which tells the court the date on which you mailed copies of the documents to your adversary.

If you are filing a motion for summary judgment, you must also include a legal brief in which you state the facts of your case and the law that supports your position.

STEP 3: Complete the Proposed Form of Order (Form C)

Fill in the information up to the line for the date of the order for all motions except motions in which you are asking the court to extend the time to completed discovery. Leave the line for the date of the Order and the rest of the form blank. The terms of the Order will be completed by the judge when the motion is decided.

STEP 4: Attach the Filing Fee

The fee for filing a motion is $50. Make a check or money order payable to the Treasurer, State of New Jersey.

STEP 5: Check Your Completed Forms and make copies.

Checklist - You must have all of the following items:

- The original Notice of Motion, Certifications, and proposed form of Order, (Forms A, B and C). If this motion is for Summary Judgment, you must also include a brief in support of a motion for Summary Judgment.
- Filing fee of $50 in the form of a check or money order, made payable to the Treasurer, State of New Jersey. Do not mail cash.
- Review the motion papers to ensure all personal identifiers are redacted, (unless such personal identifies are required to be included).
- Sign the Motion and make copies to be sent to your adversary and any other party.

STEP 6: Mail the Original Notice of Motion, Certifications and Proposed Form of Order to the Clerk's Office for Filing, and Mail Copies to Your Adversary and Any Other Party to the Lawsuit.

You must serve a copy of the motion on your adversary. While the court rules do not require you to use certified mail to an attorney, it is suggested that you send your motion and supporting papers by regular and certified mail, return receipt requested. You will then have the green card when it is returned to you as proof of service.

STEP 7: Mail or Deliver the Forms to the Court

Mail or deliver to the court the original Notice of Motion, Certifications and proposed form of Order (and brief, if applicable) to the clerk's office at the address below. All Motions sent to the Clerk's Office must have a have an original, ink signature.

Superior Court Clerk's Office
Foreclosure Processing Services
P.O. Box 971
Trenton, New Jersey 08625

If you mail the papers, we recommend that you use certified mail, return receipt requested.

Keep copies of all papers you provide to the court or any other party. Make and keep for yourself copies of all completed forms and any canceled checks, money orders, receipts, bills, contract estimates, letters, leases, photographs and other important papers that relate to your case. Keep copies of any certified mail return receipt cards as proof of service.
